Moviendo las caderas a ritmo tropical

DOSSIER

Sonidero Mandril is a collective of DJs Selektas of Mexico and Spain, also promoters of the Tropical and Afro Bass scene in Madrid. Since 2011 they promote and experiment tropical sounds mixed with electronic rhythms.

Their passion is to explore and collect music from different countries, mainly from the intertropical zone of the planet, focusing on sounds that vary from cumbia and classic salsa, to tropical bass and afro bass, electronic cumbia, 3ball, psicomol, kuduro, zouk, champeta, coupé-decalé, kwaito, soukouss, etc. Their sessions seek to create an electro-tropical environment combining classic and traditional sounds with electronic ones.

Since 2013 Sonidero Mandril has established itself as one of the main promoters of the Tropical Bass scene in Madrid, creating the monthly festival "Psicosis Tropical", held in two of the most important clubs of the city, the Siroco Club and the Sala Caracol.
